Foreword . . .

Copied 4

As we glance back at our past years at Cradock, we are thankful for the many experiences which have helped prepare us for the future — the school projects, the dances, the club activities, the knowledge gained, the assemblies, the games. In the future years these experiences will fade away to vague images; therefore, we, the staff of the 1966 Admiral, have tried to capture a vivid record of all that occurred this past year which we will always love and cherish most. We present this record to you as we have viewed "Cradock by Day and by Night."

Mr. Patrick Blake

In Appreciation Of His Many Services

Walking through the halls of Cradock, we as Seniors, have associated with him as an English teacher, as a dramatic instructor, as a counselor, and as a personal friend.

Mr. Blake received his B.A. degree upon graduating from Fairmont State College. After teaching at Woodrow Wilson High School, he embarked on his teaching career at Cradock.

His guidance has shown a deep understanding of youth, and has provided an example of such worth, that as we venture forth from these walls, our goals are elevated by his example. He has instilled in us a love of drama, wit, and laughter. As we look back on all the things he has given us, we deem ourselves fortunate to have known him. We the Senior Class want the world to know, "This was a man!"

As A Teacher

And As A Director

Monday in Study hall — What a wild weekend that was!

There is a destiny which makes us brothers; none goes his way alone.

Tomorrow is far away but time creeps on and one must have a plan.

Side-by-side with his friends — or alone — the individual stands whether thinking, working, playing — always retaining his dignity, keeping his own counsel, thinking solitary thoughts.

The classes

The dances

As the years continue to pass us by, we find success comes only when we walk together, talk together, and work together in all things. In doing so, then, and only then, shall we find the formula to peace and happiness in our success.

"Let us live in a house by the side of the road and be a friend to men."

Having Traveled The Path . . .

The year was 1961-62; the largest eighth grade class to date made its entrance into Cradack High School.

Feeling somewhat insignificant, we began to organize our class. Under the leadership of Mrs. Pallard we elected our class officers: Debbie Atkinson, Francine Harman, Lean Houston, Andy Stampely. We were well represented on the Student Council by Steve Ellis, Richard Cesler, Sally Williams, and Susan Biggers.

The following year we returned but the confidence we gained over the summer quickly vanished as Seniors reminded us we were nothing but "lowly Freshmen." As in previous years, at the beginning of school, the halls of Cradack resounded with the declaration of love for Seniors.

We elected as class officers Chris Grigas, Sam Jesselson, Susan Biggers, and Lean Houston, and as class sponsors, Mrs. Malcolm and Mr. Blake. At Homecoming we were especially proud to be represented by Debbie Atkinson.

The work of Donna Armstrong and her committee helped our first prom to be a truly "Enchanting Evening."

Representing us on the S. C. A. that year were Danna Bene, David Lawrence, Steve Ellis, and Linda Bailey.

When the Miss Cradock Contest was held, our class was again in the spotlight with the selection of Debbie Atkinson as Maid of Honor.

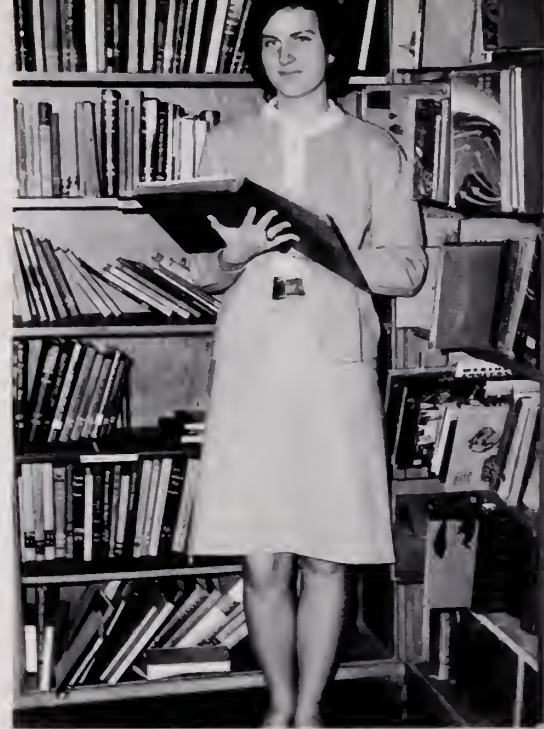

Having progressed from the ranks of lowly "rats," we gained new dignity as Sophomores. We began greater participation in all phases of school activities. Our class officers were Andy Stampely, Betty Shuler, Diane Stegall, and Leon Houston. Class sponsors were Miss Liddle and Mr. Carroll. Representing us on the Student Council were Danna Bene, Marty Coleman, Chris Grigas, and Nana Harris. Representing us in the Homecoming festivities that year was Danna Armstrong. Prom Chairman Chris Grigas and her committee began work on the prom, "Midnight Rendezvous."

In the Miss Cradock Contest distinction was brought to our class when Debbie Atkinson was again chosen Maid of Honor.

In the spring many individual class members brought special distinction to our class. Pat Black, Ronnie Vance, Penny Hedge, and Mike Baath made All-State Chorus. Ike Sherlock, voted most valuable wrestler at school, won the state championship for his weight class.

Returning to school in 1964, we were prepared for all the prestige and responsibility involved in attaining the status of an upperclassman. Again lead by Andy Stampely and other officers Danna Armstrong, Diane Stegall, and Sam Jesselson, we began our varied activities. Our sponsors were Miss Bryant and Mr. Rollins.

In Homecoming we were well represented by Chris Grigas. Our Student Council representatives for that year were Nana Harris, Chris Grigas, Donna Bene, and Francine Harmon.

The arrival of our class rings on the day of the Jr.-Sr. prom made May 14th the most eventful day of the year. The work on the decorations was somewhat hampered by the glitter of our new rings. Nevertheless, Chris Grigas and her able committee transformed the gym into an authentic "Shaw Boat."

Fully aware that we were practically the ultimate in superiority when we returned to school in 1965, we decided to exert that superiority on those horrid "rats." We chose Rod Wade to lead our class. Other officers were Mike Walls, Danna Armstrong, Betty Shuler, and Chris Grigas. Mrs. Morgan was our sponsor.

We felt great pride by the confidence placed in our class with the election of Sam Jesselson as President of the S. C. A.; Chris Grigas as Secretary; and Francine Harman as Treasurer.

For our last homecoming the Senior class thrust its efforts into the building of the prize-winning caterpillar float. To add a special touch to the Homecoming ceremonies Chris Grigas was elected Homecoming Queen.

The second semester passed all too quickly as we rehearsed for the Senior play, prepared for the banquet, prom, baccalaureate, and finally graduation.

Though many of us were elated at the prospects of graduation we could not forget our five years at Cradack and the many memories they created. We all hoped that during those five years we had prepared ourselves well for all that life would bring in the future.

Betty Shuler
Class Historian

Bequests of the Class of '66

I, JOHNNY THOMPSON, leave to Cradock High this unanswered question: Does the Dempsey Dumpster pick-up or deliver to the cafeteria?

I, LINDA BAILEY, leave to Mr. Ray Carson a year's supply of "Elmer Fudd Sure Cure Hair Grower."

I, SCOTTY SINGLETON, leave the ideal spot for all boys skipping a class—a girls' restroom.

I, LINDA CLARK, leave my empty peroxide bottles to a deserving underclassman.

I, JUDY McKIBBEN, leave to the Senior Class of '1967 the privilege of fighting for Senior privileges.

I, NANCY SAWYER, leave Mr. Westler my "giggle feather" which I sat on during his government class.

I, PRISCILLA WYATT, leave to Mr. Pruden the latest bestseller, How to Get More Enjoyment From Foiling Students.

I, BRUCE BRANHAM, leave to Mr. Wulzer a year's subscription to Modern Romances.

I, DALE STUART, leave to Jack "Sweetwater" Veazie one battle of sky blue water to remember our class by.

I, BILL CLARK, leave to one of next year's hurdlers a pair of track shorts with splinters in the seat.

I, BONNIE JORDAN, return all of Darla Wyer's clothes that I borrowed during the last three years in hopes that she will return mine.

I, ROSE BUTT, leave to Mr. Graham's future classes all the discussions on trained fleas and educated flatworms.

I, WAYNE CASPER, leave an oily parking place.

I, SUSAN BIGGERS, leave to Mr. Wulzer the loudest paisley print tie I can find.

I, LARRY WYLIE, leave all my Alcoholics Anonymous pamphlets to Mr. Wulzer.

I, JUANITA HUTE, leave to Mr. Graham's dear friend, Rasco Alfonso Hinklefink III, my English notes in hopes that he will be smarter next year than he was this year.

I, BILLY BAILEY, leave to our cafeteria a book entitled, A Thousand and One Ways to Nome o Homburger, (as if they needed it.)

I, WALTER DOBBINS, relinquish the power vested in me to destroy the serious mood in any classroom.

I, MATT DAVIDSON, leave to Mr. Graham, a year's subscription to Full Scale Murder, the hunter's guide; to Mr. Westler, a full gallon of 007 to make him the perfect smelling man; to Mr. Pruden, a "genuwine" Davy Crockett squirrel gun; and to the guy who gaofs up my typewriter I leave the "Fink of the year Award."

I, LUCY SITZ, leave the moving of the Aftan Apartment Building to anyone who has something bigger than a car.

I, DONNA BENE, leave to any courageous upcoming senior girl my honored position as the one girl in Mr. Maynard's physics class.

I, BARBARA WRIGHT, leave to the junior class that famous authoress of the best-seller How to Stoy Awoke and Learn, Mrs. Wilkinson.

I, JAN SLAGER, leave to Mr. Westler 390 Mondays to give tests on.

I, LINDA LEWIS, leave to an upcoming senior the privilege of having the senior float built at her hause, with the noise, broken bottles (Coke), Kleenex, and missing people.

I, ROD WADE, leave Mrs. Boswell, a true North Carolinian, with her English accent.

I, RONALD WILLIAMS, do hereby bequeath Mrs. Morgan only good students.

I, DAVID MUESING, leave all my extracurricular activities such as English, trig, government, and others to the unfortunate underclassmen.

I, NORMAN McINTOSH, leave Cradack with the satisfaction that I parked in the teachers' parking lot for two years without a parking permit.

I, MIKE MOY, leave to Mrs. LeCampte Betty Crocker's Helpful Hints for Beginners.

I, LOIS JACOBS, leave to Miss Barbara West a permanent cooling system to save her the trouble of opening all six top and bottom windows after her half-frozen girls have closed them.

I, RICK BOBLETT, leave to Mr. Graham a hunting vest worn by a forest ranger who was trampled to death by a herd of wild deer.

I, ETHEL PERKINS, leave to Mr. Wulzer a fluorescent tie decorated with his initial in neon lights and a bright red Beatle wig.

I, DARLA WYER, leave five pages of "I will not chew gum", which Mr. Westler is keeping for me, to Brenda Thomas.

I, GREG WHITLEY, leave to Mrs. Baswell a collection of my latest poems, and to Mr. Strickland a sled by Mattel.

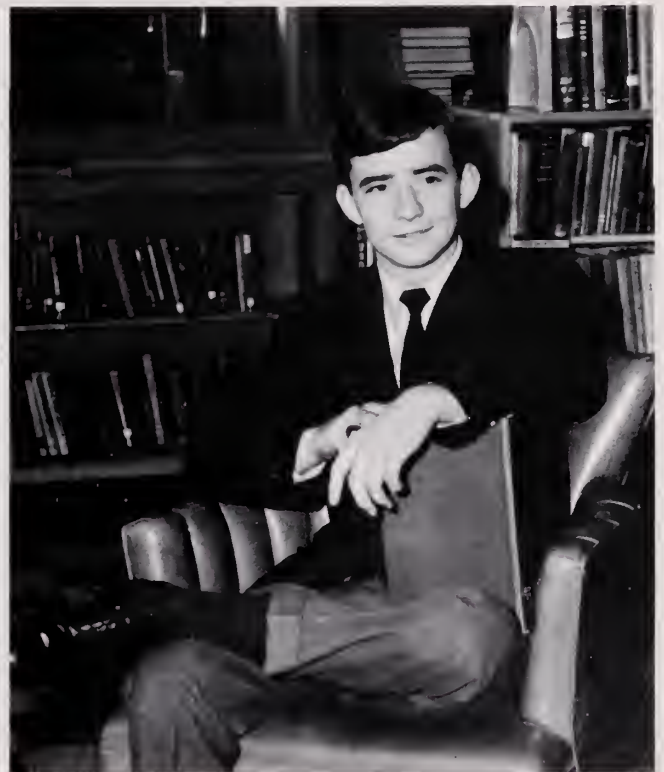

I, LINDA MATEJKA, being of unproportional body as a result of eating too many Tootsie Rolls, leave the annual staff a years supply of the above mentioned.

I, SANDRA REYNOLDS, leave Mr. Ashby a battle of tranquilizers to take when he remembers his third period class.

I, DARREL WESNER, leave Mr. Byrd a dozen magnetized golf balls for use in future matches against Wilson.

I, DOUG TAYLOR, leave the friendliest school to be found, "Our Unconquered Cradock High."

Signed, sealed, and delivered by HERB BING, class lawyer, 1966.

A Leave-Taking

If we loved it or if we didn't, it is gone.
If we relished and savored every minute of the last twelve years, or
If we only wished fervently that "tomorrow" would come, still it is gone.
Irretrievably, which means we can't get it back, and Irreparably, which means we can't change it, and Irreplaceably, which means, why do we want to?
We should have stopped nine months ago—nay, four years ago—
    to remark on the fleetness of time and the lateness of the hour.
But we can't stop time; it has to go on and on and on, breaking its neck to get where it's going; leaving us breathless...and grown up.
Heaven knows we were happy here;
Heaven knows we can never live again what we are living today the way we are living it now.
But we have done as much growing as people can do in one place;
    and room must be made for the many others to be educated here.
We will leave, and no matter how often we return,
    we can never belong again.
For to us, Cradock High School will no longer be an educational institution but a state of mind, a treasured set of memories.
Those memories are being made today.

A Special Dedication

We now take our leave. The crowded, boisterous, laughing halls of Cradock High will be behind us in reality. But in spirit, not one of us will really be gone. Too many memories will linger forever in our hearts and our minds.

In the years to come our minds and hearts will drift back to these halls, these rooms, this auditorium. And in our memories there will be a man in one of these places. That man is at the top of the mast, Admiral of the fleet, Mr. Baaker.

We will never forget his warm and reassuring welcome to us as eighth graders. Last in the massive halls of Cradock, we saw him as the light to guide the way. He was always there to flash a smile and a friendly hello; there to lend us a helping hand in our adjustment.

To cheer the team on to victory and to ease the little pains of defeat, he was there. The tap cheerleader at pep rallies, he wielded his megaphane with the best of them, shouting "Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!"

We will never forget our surprise and delight when Mr. Booker, "the swinger," let us dance at the conclusion of an assembly—in front of Mr. Godwin, too!

Mr. Booker's many lectures on getting good grades and not getting married are fond memories, tad, naw,

JUDGE . . .

CAPTAIN OF THE SHIP . . .

SWINGER . . .

EXECUTIVE . . .

FRIEND . . .

SPORTSMAN . . .

... because we know he was right all the time. We realize now that he only wanted the best for us. Students are hard-headed. Perhaps Seniors are a little more so. But Mr. Booker knew and he understood.

Even when he was lecturing us about something we had done wrong, we could see that little quirk of a smile on his lips and then we knew he had forgiven us.

At times, school days with Mr. Booker were a little hectic, but looking back, we enjoyed every minute of it. Spring came a little late in 1965. Mr. Booker wished us a Happy Easter the day before Thanksgiving. We will always remember the confusing "regular assembly schedule" and those famous words uttered from Mr. Booker's lips, "It's not how you play the game that counts, but whether or not you win."

He always gave us every opportunity to prepare ourselves for the wide, competitive world outside. From the bottom of our hearts, we thank him, not only for his guidance, but for just being, "our Mr. Booker."

Perhaps it is best that we take our leave now. Cradock will never be the same without our own Mr. Booker—reprimander, "swinger", and friend.

The Juniors

This year, under the leadership of Gary Phillips, class president, and Miss Patricia Bryant, class sponsor, the Junior Class has seen much activity. A first for the Junior Class was the entrance of a class float in the homecoming parade.

In the middle of the year we ordered our long awaited class rings whose brilliant shine would eventually cause the seniors to resort to wearing sunglasses.

The most important event this year was, of course, the Junior-Senior Prom. Many thanks go to Ethel Pinkston and her committee for a beautiful prom.

We, the Junior Class, are about to embark on our final voyage through Cradock High. This year has been the turning point; for now we are approaching the long awaited title of "Mighty Seniors."

Class President: Ken Bing

The class of "68", under the guidance of Mr. Carson, our sponsor, and leadership of Ken Bing, our President, have experienced a most successful year.

In the past three years, we have come to know Cradock as our home. We have taken part and excelled in many activities here at Cradock. The biggest project launched by the Sophomore Class was the Freshman-Sophomore Prom. Through our spirit of enthusiasm and willingness to work together, we can truly say our prom was a great success.

The events of our Sophomore year are now memories, as we look forward with eagerness and enthusiasm to the next two years at Cradock.

CLASS of 1969

We, the class of '69, owe to Cradock High School a year filled with excitement, adventure, and spiritual inspiration. Full of enthusiasm and ambition, we were dampened a little by the initiations.

We also owe a successful year to our class president, Mary Lee Ballard, our hard working class officers and our faithful sponsor, Miss Peake.

Thus being indebted to so many for such a wonderful year, we can only repay them by promising to continue and carry out the "Cradock Way," morally, spiritually, and physically.

Violo! Our first chance to celebrate High School?

President:
Jim Malcolm

8th Grade

Sponsors:

Mrs. Ann Jeffers
Mrs. Vallie Trent
and a "Friend."

Through their fine spirit and willingness to work, the eighth grade has taken their place among the Admirals.

We enjoyed taking part in activities to which we have looked forward for many years.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Jeffers and Mrs. Trent, our sponsors, and our class officers we were well led. We are looking forward to our next four years at Cradock High.

Vice President: Jan Shuler
Secretary-Treasurer: Sherry Vick

Principals Inspire Dedication

No society has had the wonderful opportunities afforded the people of this generation. We are living in a dynamic and changing world. Atomic energy and scientific discoveries have opened new vistas unthought of a generation ago. Today fifty percent of the articles found in stores were not available ten years ago and just ten years from now fifty percent of the people will be doing work unknown today. Knowledge is doubling at the unprecedented rate of eight to ten years.

Such rapid changes have tremendous implications for all, especially our youth. No longer can we be content with merely completing high school but must further our education in colleges and technical schools. Learning is a continuous thing and should be pursued during our entire lives.

Education is the key to building a better society only if accompanied by spiritual and moral values. We wish for each senior a full life in which each of the above takes its rightful place.

Sincerely,
J. J. Baaker, Jr.

The S. C. A. Makes

Sam Jesselson: President

Under the direction of Miss Elizabeth West, the S. C. A. has carried out its objective, "TO MAKE CRADOCK FIRST" through:

1. Improving communications between the Student Council and the Student Body by more direct contact, and by stimulating within the students a sense of responsibility.
2. Stressing honor and high moral standards in all phases of student life.
3. Creating better relations between the Student Body and the community by encouraging a greater interest in the activities of the community.

Paula Smith: Vice-President

Chris Grigas: Secretary

Craddock First

4. Promoting and cultivating an inward and outward feeling for all phases of our school life.

5. Establishing within the Student Body a feeling of responsibility to, and appreciation for, our country and its traditions. Such activities as the 8th grade orientation, the Student Forum, the Honor Code, and the Children's Christmas Party have made the 1965-66 year a successful one.

Francine Harmon: Treasurer

Miss Elizabeth West: Sponsor

Student Forum formulates secret plans for Teachers' Day.

Inter-Club Council Sponsors Joint Projects

Inter-Club Council: Standing: Miss Peake, Robert Allen, Narman McIntash, Billy Bailey, Robert Lindsay, Mike Bender, Mrs. Hampton, Jahnne Atkinsan, Rannie Vance.

Sitting: Danna Bene, Cheryl Lacke, Sheila Micheals, Jean Caaper, Francine Harman, Anne Lynn Pilaut, Pam Hana-ker, and Chris Grigas.

The Inter-Club Council worked hard to make this year a very successful one for all the clubs. Each club started the year off by selling Home-coming banquet tickets as a joint project.

The Inter-Club Council also sponsored a Club-of-the-Month Award. The club which had worked the hardest for a certain month was awarded this honor.

Officers: Sitting: Francine Harman, President; Standing: Jean Caaper; Mrs. Hampton and Miss Peake, Sponsors; Donna Bene.

I bet our club sold more tickets than your club sold.

National Honor Society Taps Twenty-Four

Gwoltney, Poulo Smith, Froncine Hormon, Borboro Wright, Penny Hedge, Rosalie Jackson, Angela McCotter, Becky Hamilton, Becky Drummond. 4th row: Mrs. Bruce, Dovid Kyle, Herb Bing, Collins Gooch, Mike Nosh, Phillip Doughtie, Rod Wade, Bill Clark, Rickey West, Dwight Riggs, Steve Collins, Bill Pollord.

This year one of the main activities of the National Honor Society was the tapping in of twenty-four new members. These new members must have at least a 3.0 average and must have shown outstanding character, leadership, and service.

Think your're smart now, don't you?

Other projects the Honor Society sponsored were a tutoring service to help students improve their grades, a child at the Children's Christmas Party, and honor roll party, and a scholarship fund.

Officers: Sitting: Donno Bene-President, Mrs. Bruce-Sponsor and Penny Hedge. Standing: Phyllis Peorce, Mike Wolls.

Art Club Has Winning Homecoming Float

Officers: Sitting: Johnnie Atkinson, President; Mrs. Stoffon, Sponsor. Standing: Lois Jacobs and JoAnne Wright.

It must be either a bird or a plane, because it can't be superman.

The Art Club has tried to build the interest of students toward the field of Art Appreciation. In doing this the Art Club visited the Norfolk Museum and a traveling Art Mobil which stopped temporarily on its tour at the Great Bridge Shopping Center.

One of our most rewarding activities was the participation in the Homecoming parade and winning the award for the "best carry through of the theme."

These are only examples of the many projects which helped the club have an event filled year.

Johnnie Atkinson, Jo Anne Wright, Anne Trent, Ruth Miller, Lois Jacobs, Mrs. Stoffon, Claudio Bernord, Susie

Loyden, William Horrell, Robert Hollond, Morty Coleman, Eloine Wilson.

Bible Club Gives Devotions And Blessings

"Attention all students! We are now on a regular assembly schedule."

Officers: 1st row: Jahn Spiaggi, Ethel Perkins, Althea Calhaun, Elizabeth Carter. 2nd row: Rannie Vance: President, Mrs. Spear: Spansar and David Lindsay.

This year the Bible Club worked very hard to carry out its objectives; to spread Christianity, and to have discussions and guest speakers at the meetings.

We worked hard to strengthen Christianity in the school by giving devotions over the public address system every Thursday and by saying the blessing at all lunches.

Sitting: Phillip Sheltan, James Hall, Mrs. Spear, Rannie Vance, Tammy Cesler. Standing: Althea Calhaun, Cecil Reneau, Yalanda Chappell, Leigh Bunting, David VanNoy,

Admiralettes Help Needy

This year Admiralettes has strived to bring each member into a closer relationship with one another. By doing this we feel that we can better serve our school and our community.

Some of our main activities this year were entering a float in Homecoming, canvassing at Thanksgiving, and delivering a basket of food to a needy family.

Race you to MacDonald's!

Language Arts Club Donates Flags

The Language Arts Club, which promotes understanding between French, Spanish, and Latin cultures, customs, and people, has performed a variety of activities this year.

Members, studying one of the three foreign languages, have rendered such services as supplying French and Spanish flags for the language rooms, and sponsoring a coat check at home basketball games. They also provided a scholarship for a deserving senior studying language.

There's no hape when you try to take French, Spanish, and Latin all in the same year.

Delta Helps Increase

Delta is designated to promote higher standards of Christian character in young girls. We would like to thank both Mrs. Vance, our faculty sponsor, and the Emblem Club #252, our sponsoring organization, for their guidance during the year.

The purpose of our club is to serve the home, school, and community. These goals have been carried out through many worthwhile activities. Delta's main objective is to promote attendance at P.T.A. meetings.

P.T.A. Membership

We did this by having a nursery for children and by serving refreshments after Back-to-School night. We also held a membership drive.

Delta helped with many other school activities. We helped the Annual Staff sell Tootsie Rolls, we sponsored three children at the Christmas party, and we sponsored an honor roll party.

We also helped the community by selling Christmas seals for the T. B. Association. Our biggest community project was helping to beauty Cradock.

If Y.M.A. can wind the clock, Delta can clean the cannon.

I know we said no age limit, but baby-sitting for 17 year old boys!

Chess Club Has Successful First Year

The Chess Club, whose main objective is to increase interest in the sport of chess and to stimulate the minds of the students participating, had a very successful first year. The main activity of the club was to send a representative to the annual Group 1-A District Championship game.

But Archie, you're supposed to checkmate the king, not the queen

Science Club Conducts Experiments

The Science Club worked hard this year both helping the school and learning about science. The members made plans to help the Science Department. They also planned field trips for the spring. Many of the members began working on their exhibits for the science fair.

Do you think this is really strong enough to blow up the school?

Kappa Helps Orphanage

Kappa has worked very hard this year to become one of the most active clubs in Cradock. The members have been busy serving the school and the community.

Some of the main activities have been cleaning trophies, sponsoring an honor roll party, giving a Halloween party for St. Mary's Orphanage, and making utility bags for the South Viet Nameese children. Because of these and many other projects, Kappa was awarded the first Club-of-the-Month award.

Officers: 1st row: Miss McFarling, Spansar; Jean Caaper, President; Miss Haynes, Spansar; Debbie Overtan. 2nd row: Pam Hanaker, Cheryl Cabb, Priscilla Wyatt, Cheryl Fields.

Kappa travels in a blue pick-up truck and leaves the driving to Nancy.

F.B.L.A. Makes P.T.A. Booklets For James Hurst

Sitting: Laura Pye, Helen Faulkner, Peggy Cox, Debbie Garner, Beverly Collier, Linda Shelton, Cathy Eddy, Rosemary Carter, Peggy Fuller. Standing: Miss Porter, Yolanda Chappell, Peggy Taylor, Linda Coe, Claudette Prince, Lynn Everton, Mary Kay Dorson, Linda Richardson, Elaine Phillips, Nancy Collins, Sandra Harris, Freida Martin, Eddy Brown, Barbara McAlpin, Susan Barrett, Sharon Hall, Robert Allen, Mike Baothe, Miss Lumsden.

The sole purpose of the F.B.L.A. this year has been to acquaint the members, who are business students, with how to apply the classes they are taking to the everyday business world. Just as there is competition in the business world, there is a bit of competition in the F.B.L.A.

The club has also been active in school and community projects. The members typed and printed P.T.A. booklets for James Hurst Elementary School and sold student directories listing the names and addresses of all Cradock students.

How come finger prints always come out clearer than anything else?

F.T.A. Student Teachers

Would anybody else like to get a drink of water before we begin class?

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for an F.T.A. member to student-teach and to assume the powers of teaching, which include the responsibility for both teaching and keeping their pupils quiet, a decent respect is due such a brave soul.

We hold these truths to be self-evident that the members student-taught for those teachers attending the V.E.A. Convention, graded standardized tests for the City of Portsmouth, honored teachers during American Education Week, held a student-teaching clinic at the District T meeting, and last but not least sponsored and published the first newsletter to be distributed among the area schools.

We mutually pledge to ourselves Life, Liberty, and the ability to avoid paper airplanes.

J.C.T. Gets "On The Job Training"

We feel that this has been a very warthwhile year for the Industrial Ca-operative Training Club because af our many and varied activities on the local, district, and state levels.

Through obtaining our abjectives af character, craftsmanship, citizenship, leadership, and fellow-ship, we feel that we have braught hanar to aur schaal, prestige ta aur employers, and under-standing of our future vacations ta aurselves.

Ah, Gail, lunch wosn't oll thot bod.

The Cradock D. E. Club, a professional and social organization for seventy-five employed students has indeed been busy this year.

Their participation in the annual Homecoming activities went "un-flowered but not un-naticed."

Breakfast meetings once a month has designated the group as the "early birds." And with many professional speakers, the group has developed a greater understanding of the field of Distributive Education and their role in the same.

Hosting the District II Contest meeting in March has spurred un-controllable enthusiasm with visions of many first-place honors climaxed with a dream of walking away with honors at the State Leadership Conference.

The annual Employer-Employee appreciation festivity will be a departure from past years banquets. To live up to the "early bird" reputation, the Club is planning a breakfast for their employers.

What do you mean, you don't have pick-up sticks?

Quill And Scroll Promotes Interest In Publications

This year the Quill & Scroll, made up of members from The Admiral, The Log and Shipmate staffs, has worked hard to promote interest in the school publications.

Besides participating in service projects such as the Children's Christmas Party, the members have made tours of the newspaper and radio offices.

I wish all literary efforts were this easy.

Y.M.A. Helps Annual Staff

The Admirals' Young Men of Action Club was again striving for the cherished award of "Club of the Year." Under the able leadership of Norman McIntosh, President, and Mr. Clements, Sponsor, Y.M.A. was once again one of Cradock's leading clubs.

The members of Y.M.A. had many enjoyable times, while serving both the school and the community. They have been active in such school projects as selling

Y. M. A. will do anything to get rid of Delta.

A-a-h come on, Mr. Clements, this one will only be your 500th Tootsie Roll conister.

By Selling Tootsie Rolls

Tootsie Rolls for the Annual Staff, polishing the Victory Bell, and making signs for football and basketball games. The members also helped the community by giving to the United Fund, supporting the Thanksgiving Food Drive, and helping the Cancer Society.

These are only an example of the many activities which helped Y.M.A. have a very successful year.

The Industrial Crafts Club, made up of boys enrolled in Industrial Arts, helps further the boy's knowledge of mechanical and industrial work. The boys learn by making things themselves.

The Industrial Crafts Club also participates in service activities. At Thanksgiving, the boys collected food to be given to needy families, and at Christmas, they collected toys to be given to children by the Fire Department.

Thespian Members Present Plays

The Cradock High School Troupe 1491 of the National Thespian Society is composed of members who have achieved the traditional ten dramatic points.

The two main objectives of the Thespian Society are to establish and promote standards of excellence in all phases of the Dramatic Arts and to create an active and intelligent interest in drama among the students. These objectives have been carried out by establishing the Three O'Clock Theatre.

Debate Involves Hard Work

Debaters: Betty Butler, Cheryl Cobb

Mr. Graham: Sponsor

Debate is an activity which requires a great amount of time, research, and thought. In fact, the work involved discourages most students from participating in this area of forensics, but the greater the effort, the more satisfying the reward. The skills learned in debate makes one a more competent citizen of the school, community, and nation.

Debaters: Paul Van Noy, Glenn Jones, Eddie McMillion ton, Rosalie Jackson, Jewell Horris, Norman McIntosh, Donno Armstrong, Eddie McMillian, Wayne Umstead.

Informative Newspaper

A new crop of students found their way down the long, lonely hall to the journalism room. Since all but one was new, both a junior and senior editor were chosen.

Quickly initiated into the world of journalism, the students thrilled to the discovery of the constant activity lying behind Cradock's calm facade.

This year the Shipmate's special project has been to increase communications between the school and community. The stories have reflected the local and national scene through the school.

Photographers: Donno Armstrong and Norman McIntosh.

Louise, we're only short 200 copies. It won't take you anytime to type them.

Log Staff Puts Out

Editor: Betty Shuler

It is sixth period; room 233 is empty. The nomadic members of the Log staff have once again begun their sixth period migration to other parts of the building.

During the working season the Log staff strives to publish, in an original and attractive form, a collection of the creative efforts of the students at Cradock.

The staff wishes to express its appreciation to all who contributed their efforts and wishes to encourage increased participation in this phase of school activity.

Layout Staff: Sitting: Velma Baker, Pam Hanaker. Standing: Barbara Wright, Andy Stampley, Barbara Stallings, Bill Clark.

Art Staff: Sitting: Peggy Fuller, Margaret Baylan. Standing: Guy Ross, Jane Hicks, George Bernard.

Literary Magazine

Annual Staff Publishes

Assistant Editor: Priscilla Wyatt. Editor: Marty Coleman.

Associate Editors: Susan Belding, Brenda Ellis.

Sponsor: Miss Gwaltney. Sophomore Representatives: Diane Dodd, Bill Harrell.

Out of a claud of Toatsie Ralls emerges the Annual Staff along with our faithful spensor Miss Gwaltney, only to find our editors huddled in a corner playing "Pick-Up-Sticks." Thus began another hectic year of a unified effort to praduce a successful annual.

Everyday brought new problems which required graup ca-operation and understanding. A sincere thanks goes out to the members of our faculty as well as Mr. Baaker and Mr. Byrd far their patience and willingness to help.

Congratulations to the Staff for giving us a clear view of "Cradack by Day and by Night."

Beautifull bunch, aren't we?

Bellamy Award

Virginia Mathison, class of 1965, delegate to the National Bellamy Award.

Mr. Leonard Gardner, Governor Charles L. Terry, Margarette S. Miller, Judith Yarbrough, and J. J. Booker, Jr.

The National Bellamy Flag Award was established in 1942 under the leadership of Miss Margarette S. Miller, Biographer of Francis Bellamy the author of the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. Each year, since 1942, a representative and outstanding secondary school, has been selected to receive the coveted honor.

Twenty two years ago the second Bellamy

Award was presented to the Commonwealth of Virginia. Cradock High School holds the honor for its state. Pierre S. duPont High School, Wilmington, Delaware this year proudly takes its place in the Bellamy Award Family for the next 50 years.

Chosen to serve as official representative this year was Miss Virginia Mathison. Sam Jesselson served as an alternate and delegate.

Som Jesselson, J. J. Booker, Jr., Miss Miller, Miss Fitzgerald, and Miss Liddle discuss Bellamy Award Ceremony.

Homecoming

1965

Probably the most gala event at Cradock during the year was Homecoming. A bright October sun shone down on "A Land of Make-believe" as students rushed to finish decorating club floats.

As two o'clock approached people lined the streets of Cradock to make their choice as to which float was best.

After the parade the Alumni were entertained at a reception and Banquet. The day was climaxed with the crowning of Chris Grigas Homecoming Queen and the defeat of Granby 13-7.

The "Most Outstanding" float had a "sweet surprise for the class of '55".

Homecoming Committee Chairman

The Senior Class wiggles a welcome to the alumni winning the "Most Original" float award.

The "Best Looking" float, Y.M.A.'s Old Lady in the Shae, offered a welcome to Granby.

Reflections Of A Queen

I felt that it was a great honor to have been chosen to represent Cradock High School as Homecoming Queen. I will always remember the excitement the day of homecoming and especially all the wonderful students who made my last year at Cradock the best ever.

Chris Grigos, Homecoming Queen of 1965

FRESHMEN SOPHOMORE PROM

A Prom involves a lot of work . . .

Fantasia

March 19th proved to be a memorable night for the Freshmen, Sophomores, and their guests. The cafeteria was transformed into the elegance of SHANGRI-LA. Under the leadership of Mr. Carsan and Miss Peake the prom committee captured the true atmosphere of the Orient by using a rickshaw serving table, fortune cookies, murals representing Japanese silken screens, and Japanese lanterns. As Confucius would say, "most honorable prom was huge success," and those attending would answer, "Ah So!"

But the end product is worth all the trouble.

JUNIOR - SENIOR PROM

The band played . . .

Shangri-la

A funny thing happened on the way to the Junior-Senior Prom, FANTASIA, — well, actually it happened after arriving at the prom. From outside you could hear the lovely melodies of "The Continentals." Upon entering the castle wonderland, huge mushrooms and murals of flowers and fairy kingdams greeted you. The ceiling was blanketed in blue clouds just dark enough to please the dancers and not so dark as to displease Mr. Booker.

Everything was heaven for everyone, everyone, that is, except the annual photographer. The staff had such beautiful hopes for a double page spread on the Junior-Senior Prom. But, alas, our "skilled" photographer "forgot to push a button or something" when he changed the film, and the entire evening produced only four pictures. The staff was extremely worried that these pictures might mislead some students by the story they imply:

The people danced . . .

The people ate . . .

The band played.
The people danced.
The people ate.
The people danced.

Because we do not have pictures of how lovely FANTASIA was, we wanted you to know that everything was beautiful and truly a night to remember. In fact, contrary to the way some of the dancers look, everyone was happy.

The band played happily.
The people danced happily.
The people ate happily.
The people danced happily.

The annual staff, on the other hand, smiled bravely as they received only four pictures.

The people danced!

Mr. J. J. Booker, Jr.

1949-1966

A reward for many years of service.

A tearful farewell for everyone!

Along with the departing class of 1966 went our principal, Mr. J. J. Booker, Jr. He will be missed by all. On hearing of his leaving the Student Council immediately began planning a farewell assembly for him — each department, each organization, each class, each student, wanted to honor Mr. Booker. So when the day of the assembly came, nearly everyone had helped in making it such a great success. From the student body, he received a stereo as well as many other gifts and remembrances from other school organizations.

Mr. Booker will always be a part of Cradock High School. We salute you MR. BOOKER, your "Cradock spirit" will always remain.

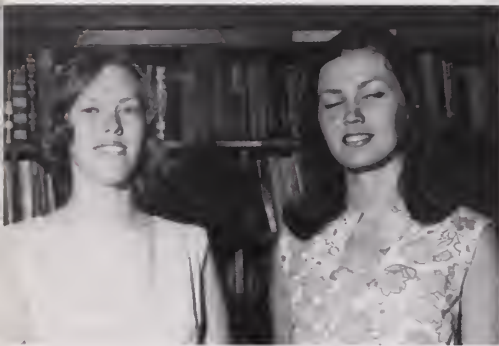

He received many gifts and remembrances.

1966—What A Year!

"If a man answers" was a swinging senior class play.

Dressing room — Play night!

Some last minute instructions to the cast.

1966—what a year. We as Seniors had a lot of fun that year, a lot of good times that we won't soon forget. . . .

. . . like the time Mr. Carson demanded from a surprised Linda Bailey the bottle of hair grower she promised him in the Last Will and Testament. Mr. Westler did the same thing to Nancy Sawyer, only he had been promised 390 Mondays to give tests on. Was his first period ever mad when he tried to collect!

. . . and the time Pat Black was thrown into the pool at Janett McNeely's party, on impromptu ducking with all her clothes on.

. . . Lois Jacobs will never forget the time her stockings fell to her ankles in the main hall, nor will Chris Grigas forget her tumble downstairs in the auditorium in front of the whole football team.

Suzy the Goat gave everybody a rough time; besides nibbling on the cheerleaders' pompoms (and Donna Armstrong's skirt) at critical moments during football games, she—er—lost control of herself in the auxiliary gym during the senior assembly. Any gym teacher can tell you where she was tethered.

That same day the seniors took off for Red's during first period and returned to find Mr. Book-er waiting at the main door with a poddle in his hand and a grin on his face—ond o warm hand-shake for each of us.

There was the day Marty Keesecker's lovely antique automobile shifted under the weight of seven surfboards and cracked the window in Mr. Byrd's office; the day the Log staff was caught sniffing glue, which wasn't so bad except that Mrs. Boswell was pushing goofballs on the side; the day Elaine Wilson got caught smuggling cokes up to the annual staff room in her "little red bucket". The annual staff always had o good time, playing hopscotch, pic-up-sticks, monopoly, cards—anything they could find except work.

Mike Boothe tried to recall the funny times in chorus and finally sighed, "Ah, the whole thing was a joke." Spectators won't soon forget watching Andy Stampley do the bird with Miss Fitzgerald at the Prom, nor will Andy forget the sinking feeling he got realizing that he was marching by himself—in perfect time—at one end of the field while the rest of the band was at the other during a football game. Sam Jesselson promised Mr. Mapp a lifetime "prescription" to the Log . . . Jimmy Spinelle sent Mrs. Boswell a cartoon that reminded him of Moby Dick and a disconcerted Log staff member noted that it had been cut out of Playboy magazine . . . Gina Pittman and Butch Schodt are co-tutoring Mrs. Bruce; they are more than quolified after the impromptu French lessons they received during Senior closs play rehearsals . . . Mr. Westler's classes just couldn't keep him off those pills; ofter o particularly hord week-end, he would ask questions and forget them before the answers were given . . .

Good old Cradock High School; good old Senior Class; good old 1966. We had a lot of good times that year. And we collected a lot of fond memories.
